NYSDOH Leadership Development Program

This course is designed for current and inspiring officers to help gain the necessary baseline knowledge of the role of a leader within organization. Whether a fire or EMS officer, this course will provide the information and tools to help prepare for the challenging aspects of leadership: working with people. The information obtained from this course will help future Fire Chiefs and EMS officers better enable themselves to lead successful organizations.

Class Description:

Day 1 – Being the Leader People Want to Follow

- National EMS Management Association 7 Pillars of Leadership
- Developing a learner's mindset
- Getting to a clean slate
- Manager vs. Leader
- The influence of leadership on culture
- Styles of leadership
- Creating yourself as a leader

Day 2 – Strategies and Applications for the EMS Supervisor

- Creating yourself as the leader you want to be
- Creating a personalized change plan
- Intentionally designing a new culture
- Coaching and mentoring
- Communication
- Leadership in action

This course is not EMS specific and highly encouraged for members of the fire service to attend as well
